WELCOME TO CHRIST CHURCH ST LAURENCE

Christ Church St Laurence is an inner city parish committed to the spread of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. As a congregation and as the Church we are committed to the support of the underprivileged, the persecuted and the socially marginalised. We are an Anglican church in the Anglican Catholic tradition.

SENTENCE

Repent and be baptised every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

COLLECT

O God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in his redeeming work; who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

On the day of Pentecost, Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, 'Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.' Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, 'Brothers, what should we do?' Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptised every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.' And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.' So those who welcomed his message were baptised, and that day about three thousand persons were added to their number.

For the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

Verses of the psalm are read alternately by a single reader and the congregation. A pause is observed at the colon for reflection. At Solemn High Mass, the choir sings the psalm.

PSALM 116

1. I love the Lord, because he heard my voice:
the voice of my supplication;
2. Because he inclined his ear to me: in the day that I called to him.
3. The cords of death encompassed me, the snares of the grave took hold on me: I was in anguish and sorrow.
4. Then I called upon the name of the Lord: 'O Lord, I beseech you, deliver me!'
11. How shall I repay the Lord: for all his benefits to me?
12. I will take up the cup of salvation: and call upon the name of the Lord.
13. I will pay my vows to the Lord: in the presence of all his people.
14. Grievous in the sight of the Lord: is the death of his faithful ones.
15. O Lord, I am your servant, your servant and the child of your handmaid:
you have unloosed my bonds.

MASS READINGS

16. I will offer you a sacrifice of thanksgiving: and call upon the name of the Lord.
17. I will pay my vows to the Lord: in the presence of all his people,
18. In the courts of the house of the Lord: even in your midst, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord endures for ever.' That word is the good news that was announced to you.

For the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia.

Do not be afraid, go tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.

Alleluia.

GOSPEL

LUKE 24.13-35

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

On that same day, two of the disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' Jesus asked them, 'What things?' They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see Jesus.' Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?' Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Jesus; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?' That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!' Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

PSALM 146

Praise the Lord, O my soul: while I live will I praise the Lord. While I have any being, I will sing praises to my God.

COMMUNION SENTENCE

PSALM 16.11

You will show me the path of life: in your presence is the fullness of joy: and from your right hand flow delights for ever more.

COMMUNION MOTET

Ave verum corpus
Orlandus Lassus (c.1530–94)

Ave verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine vere passum immolatum in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum unda fluxit et sanguine.
Esto nobis praegustatum in mortis examine.

*Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary,
who truly suffered upon the cross for mankind;
from whose pierced side there came forth water and blood;
give us now, and at the time of our death, yourself to be our food.*

SUNDAY NOTICES

Sunday School

To celebrate the beginning of the new Sunday School term, a group will be going out for Yum Cha after the 9am Eucharist today. All are welcome to attend. Please also save the date, Friday 26 May, for a movie night for Sunday School Children. For further information please speak to Melinda Seed, or contact the office to RSVP.

The Deacon's Treasure

The Eastertide edition of The Deacon's Treasure is currently available. It continues the series on the church's stained glass windows as well as articles on the Community of St Gabriel and the history of CCSL's lectern. It is available from Belltower Books in the porch and parish hall for $7.

Christian Meditation Retreat with Fr Laurence Freeman OSB

The National Silent Retreat will be held at St Ignatius' College in Riverview, Sydney from Sunday 9 to Friday 14 July 2017. Fr Laurence will be speaking each morning on the theme "Finding Oneself" and in the afternoon leading us in a contemplative, ecumenical Eucharist. There will be five periods of meditation a day with time for quiet reflection while walking in the beautiful grounds. Registration details are available on the ACMC website: <http://www.christianmeditationaustralia.org/>
